INTRO FOR MEN'S EVENTS

Jason Carthen, Ph.D.

He blew me away...He is inspiring...we never had a speaker of that caliber...he is a voice for these times ” – these are just a few of the comments audiences have used to describe our next speaker. Dr. Jason comes to us today after all the odds were stacked against him.

Listen to this: From Fatherless - to homeless - to College recruit- to professional football player - to Harvard - to award winning speaker and best-selling author, Dr. Jason has either dreamed it, done it, overcome it, or helped others achieve it.

He has spoken to over 1000 audiences and traveled to 15 different countries with his largest audience being 20,000 at Quicken Loans Arena in Cleveland, Ohio. His weekly Radio Show Discover the Leader in You™ has a listening audience of over 185,000 people.

One thing Dr. Jason says he knows for sure: We ALL are in a state of becoming and none of us have arrived. It is possible to live happier, healthier lives while learning to thrive if we are willing to challenge our beliefs about what our purpose is and what we are capable of accomplishing.

Here to help us challenge some of those beliefs right now, please help me welcome...Dr. Jason Carthen!
